

Principal's Update 3.2.23

Dear Parents,

We hope this correspondence finds you all well. I am sure you like ourselves our looking forward to a restful weekend break.

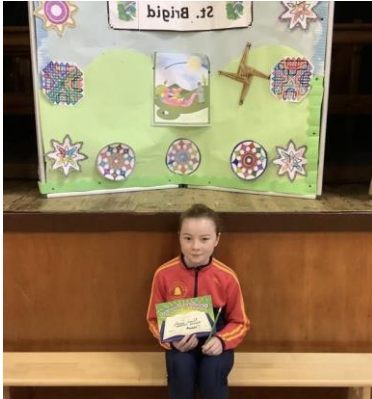

To round up the week we had our P.4 class present a wonderful assembly, celebrating St. Brigid. The boys and girls in Mrs Mc Cooley's class were excellent, telling us all about this particular saint and the traditions that now take place each year on 1st February. All pupils enjoyed celebrating this particular feast day throughout this school week making St. Brigid crosses.

Congratulations to our pupils of the week who obtained the Principal's award for overall endeavour to their work in class. It is wonderful to celebrate how our pupils really do give of their very best.

A huge well done to Niamh, another one of our pupils who has achieved the word millionaire award, as part of our ongoing work with Accelerated Reader.

So many of our pupils are diligently reading away and I have no doubt will make it to the million mark very soon.

Please find below a few important dates for your diary:

As part of ongoing fundraising, we are holding a nonuniform day/Red day on Friday 10.2.23. Can payment please be made via parentpay. We look forward to seeing all our pupils wearing red next Friday.

Mobile Library will be visiting us again on Thursday 9.2.23. Can we please urge all those pupils who have outstanding books to please remember to bring them in on Thursday, so they can be returned before any more new books are issued.

Reminder: We are now at the beginning of February, can we please urge all outstanding January monies owed to now be paid. We do need you to pay in advance for dinners going forward please.

Yours in continued partnership
